Col. Roger Williams, of the 2d Regiment, Thursday Night Called Company C Out For Service.

Two Brothers of the Wife of the Murdered Man, Who With Ten Children is Left Unprovided For, Leads the Mob.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 22.—At 10:45 o'clock Monday night the prospect of a mob, which had formed on the outskirts of the city, attacking the jail in which Ed Taylor, Garfield Smith and John Taylor are confined, was so pronounced that County Judge Bullock advised that the militia be called out. Constables and deputy sheriffs to the number of 50 had already been put on guard at the jail and all day police have been called from their beds to reinforce the night force.

Sunday night the three Negroes, who are in jail, started out on an expedition to "kill white dogs." Entering Luigart's saloon they opened fire on a company of white men who were

W. H. ELLIS RETURNS.

He Carried Commercial Treaty to King Menelik, of Abyssinia.

Washington, Nov. 22.—W. H. Ellis, of New York, who took to King Menelik, of Abyssinia, the commercial treaty negotiated between that country and the United States, was at the white house Monday night and had a talk with the president regarding his mission. He was accompanied to the white house and introduced to the president by Senator James S. Clarkson, of New York.

The duty of carrying the treaty to King Menelik originally had been entrusted to Mr. Loomis, the brother of Assistant Secretary Loomis. Mr. Loomis on leaving the United States was accompanied by Mr. Ellis, who was journeying to Abyssinia on private business, and to the latter was delegated the mission undertaken by Mr. Loomis after the latter lost his life off the English coast.

Mr. Ellis presented to the president several weapons of unique and handsome design sent by King Menelik as a gift. He also brought to the United States with him an ostrich and other specimens of Abyssinian animal and bird life, which were taken charge of by Mr. Clarkson on their arrival in New York. They also were sent as gifts to the president by King Menelik. Later they will be removed to the zoological park for their permanent home.

THE NEW CABINET.

Mr. Moody Consents to Remain as Attorney General of the United States.

THE OFFICE IS TO HIS LIKING.

It is Reasonably Certain That Heads of Six Executive Departments Have Been Determined On.

They Are Hay, Taft, Metcalf, Wilson and Moody—George B. Cortelyou Will Be Postmaster General After March 4, Next.

Washington, Nov. 22.—It was announced at the white house Monday that Attorney General Moody has decided to remain in President Roosevelt's new cabinet.

Prior to his transfer from the navy department to the department of justice, Mr. Moody himself authorized the statement that at the conclusion of the present administration he would retire from the cabinet to practice law in Boston. It was stated, in this connection, that Mr. Moody had formed a law partnership that was congenial and advantageous in all respects. This was given as his only reason for retiring from public life. It has been known for some time that the office of
