

ELLIS, HOME, IS SILENT ON LOOMIS' MYSTERY

William H. Ellis and the Two Women
Friends Who Greeted Him
at the Pier.

HAS CONCESSIONS FOR ABYSSINIAN DIAMOND MINES.

Announces That He Has Also
Control of 300,000 Acres of Land on the Nile and Will Make Cotton Test There

William H. Ellis, who was with Kent J. Loomis when the latter disappeared mysteriously from the German liner Kaiser Wilhelm II., several months ago, and who is accredited with a desire to become King of Abyssinia, returned yesterday on the American liner Philadelphia, from Africa, whither he went with a treaty to Menelik.